

2020 GRADUATES

UNIVERSITY GRADUATES

Alexa Halkias is a Summa Cum Laude graduate from WVU. She double majored in English and History, and minored in Law and Legal Studies. She was named Eberly College outstanding senior in History, and Eberly Scholar, and outstanding English Major. She was the recipient of the Mountaineer Scholarship, and the Virginia Butts Sturm Scholarship, and a member of Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society, Sigma Tau Delta English Honor Society and Alpha Phi International Sorority, in which she served as Vice-President of Risk Management.

She plans to attend the Marshall-Wyeth School of Law at the College of William and Mary in the fall.

Kate Halkias is a Summa Cum Laude Honor graduate of WVU. She majored in Psychology and minored in Political Science and English. She was a recipient of the Dorothy Wotring Simon Award, a Presidential Scholar. She is a member of Psi Chi Psychology Honor Society and Alpha Phi International Sorority, in which she served as Vice-President of Member Education and Programming, and chaired the Red Dress Gala philanthropy, which raised thousands of dollars for cardiac health research.

She's attending the Marchall Wyeth School of Law at the College of William and Mary in the fall.

Kate Papadopoulos graduated this spring from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She double majored in Peace, War, and Defense and Art History, and minored in Classical Humanities. In college, Kate was a curatorial intern in UNC's art museum and served as secretary for UNC's campus chapter of She's the First, an international non-profit that funds K-12 education for girls in developing countries. She was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa this past fall. Kate is proud to have graduated with highest honors after defending her honors thesis on the civil war in Yemen. She enjoys tennis, drawing, and cheering on Carolina basketball. Kate is looking forward to moving to Washington, D.C. where she'll be starting work for the Department of Defense.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE

Gabe Papadopoulos is graduating from Hurricane High School with highest honors. Gabe is a member of the National Honor Society and the English National Honor Society, and was elected by his classmates to Student Government and as a Finalist for the Mr. Redskin Award. Gabe was a pitcher for Hurricane's baseball team every year, and the team won the State AAA Championship his sophomore year and was the State Championship Runner Up his junior year. Gabe will attend Florida State University and major in criminology, with the plan to attend law school.

Congratulations to the Class of 2020!

